

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

No matter what your political preference, America
is not well served
when a broadcasting
corporation refuses
to present balanced
perspectives.

Sinclair's intention to abuse their responsibility to the public indicates
they are not worthy of the broadcasting
licenses they hold.
If they refuse to keep their
broadcasting neutral
or offer equal time
for diverse views,
their licenses
should be revoked.

Thank you for
stepping up the FCC
responsibility for monitoring
broadcasting
stations and holding them accountable for
the content they
air.
